

WORK

Haste makes waste.

Every job is a self-portrait of the person who did it.

Make haste slowly.

Choose a job you love, and you will never have to work a day in your life.

By the work one knows the workman.

Labor has a bitter root but a sweet taste.

Work well done is art.

Ideas won't work unless you do.

If you have a job without aggravations, you don't have a job.

Who begins too much accomplishes little.

Work spares us from three great evils: boredom, vice and need.

Truth Endures
